RUSSIA COMPLETES MARKING BORDER WITH ESTONIA. Russian hydrography workers reported on 28 June that they completed marking the border with Estonia the previous day by placing buoys on Lake Narva, BNS reported. As with the land border in 1994, Russia marked it unilaterally, ignoring Estonia's claims that the border should be based on the Tartu Peace Treaty of 1920. Russian Deputy Foreign Minister Sergei Krylov told his Estonian counterpart Raul Malk on 26 June that Moscow would stand by its decision not to recognize the Tartu Treaty and a border agreement could be signed only when Estonia follows suit. -- Saulius Girnius, OMRI, Inc.

LITHUANIA LEGALIZES FREE ECONOMIC ZONES. The Seimas, by a vote of 50 to 27 with 9 abstentions, passed a Law on Free Economic Zones (FEZ) on 28 June, BNS reported. The law provides privileges on land, value added, and profit taxes in the FEZ, but bans any economic-commercial activities related to state security and defense, the production of weapons, hazardous and narcotic substances, alcoholic beverages, and tobacco as well as establishing or running gambling houses. The former Soviet military airport at Zokniai near Siauliai and the port of Klaipeda have already done most of the preparatory work for setting up FEZs in their territories. -- Saulius Girnius, OMRI, Inc.
